Episcopal group to trace roots in Europe

By Deb M. Dudek, Staff writer, Hometown Communicator Network

Finding roots is more than a matter of genealogy.

When Rev. Carol Spangenberg, Ph.D., rector of St. John's Episcopal church, tried to answer questions about church history to the parish youth group, she didn't want to lecture a history lesson.

Spangenberg suggested the group called "The Saints", tour the religious landmarks in Europe, where much of their faith was founded.

Receiving parental permission was not a problem. Finding chaperones was not a struggle. But meeting the price tag which accompanied the trip was daunting. Spangenberg said the children had a goal and began to raise funds for the excursion.

"They dove into this for the last four years, working to earn money with bake sales, working Lugnut concessions stands, auctioning off Easter baskets and selling pop and popcorn at Frontier Days."

Over three years later, The Saints earned over $9,000 from activities, donations and a $1,500 grant from the Diocese of Western Michigan Foundation.

Word of the trip circulated through the church, and more people began to show interest in the retreat. Spangenberg said she opened the trip up to the parish. Now, 25 people, including the nine youth group members, will experience the religious adventure in Europe.

When the students were not raising money, they began to study the cathedrals, castles, abbeys and other sites of Great Britain.

Spangenberg said students completed reports on a specific site and gave a presentation to the rest of the group.

"Everyone has an area of expertise," Spangenberg said. "They are well informed about every place we are going to visit."

During the trip, Spangenberg said the group will visit Tinter Abbey, one of the biggest abbeys that existed from the 12th to the 14th centuries. The abbey was self-sufficient and slept around 1,000 monks at one time. They will also visit Oxford University, which played a very important role in the Oxford movement of Episcopal Church.

The trip will also include a stop in London and a tour of Westminster Abbey.

The St. John's group will be abroad for 10 days. They are leaving June 29 and return home on July 9.

"It's going to be a religious trip as well as a fun trip," Spangenberg said. "I hope that they learn that their faith was alive then, is alive now and is alive in them."

Spangenberg said she hopes to have a party in the fall, when trip members will have a chance to share their experience through stories, videos and pictures.

The Church Mouse heard ...

I don't have much time to report, because – guess what?!? Father David is taking me to England!!!

Well, he didn't exactly invite me, but I'm sure he won't mind if I snuggle inside his socks and hitch a ride over. Besides, Father and Mr. Byers might forget all the sites they visit, so I'll take good notes and report to you all when we get back. ✕

Organist-choir director wanted

St. David's is looking for someone to serve as the organist and choir director.

Jon Jackinchuk did a fine job in this important ministry. But, now he has moved to Fruitport, north of Grand Rapids, and will no longer be able to come to St. David's.

This position is responsible for all of the music at St. David's, from the weekly service hymns to the special music at the offertory and on special occasions.

If you, or someone you know, may be interested, please contact the office for more information. ✕

GEE, I BET NOBODY THOUGHT THE NEW ORGANIST WOULD BRING IN A LARGE LIVER WHEN THEY SAID HE COULD SUPPLY HIS OWN ORGAN

Notes from St. John's Corner

There will be no Tuesday night dinner in the months of July or August at St. John's!!! We will have the Frontier BBQ in September. Please remember this change.

The Tuesday night dinners may resume in October of 2001. Thanks to everyone that has helped and taken the responsibility for the dinners from January to June. Have a great summer!

Remember that the Rector will be gone from June 29th to July 25th. If there is an emergency, please call Sched Sparks or Becky Brown at 517-543-4473 or 517-663-8690. The pastor at Peace Lutheran, the Rev. Noel Hall-Neiman, may also be called.

Please keep everyone in your prayers that will be traveling this summer, especially the Saints and their families. The Saints will be meeting the Archbishop of Canterbury, William Carey, on the first Sunday they are there at Canterbury Cathedral. This is a very special privilege and we are very grateful to him for seeing us and encouraging our young people to continue their walk in faith.

EFM Program Coming to St. David's

By Barbara Van Dyke

EFM, also known as Education for Ministry, will be offered this fall at St. David's. EFM is a distance learning theological education program of the School of Theology of the University of the South in Sewanee, Tennessee. EFM provides a comprehensive, experiential education in the foundations and message of our Christian faith.

EFM is a 4-year program for the laity of the church and provides the basics of a theological education in order to develop knowledge and confidence about the ministry we all share. EFM teaches how to think theologically, deepens faith and understanding of our Christian heritage, and provides new confidence to be Christ's minister.

The goal is to learn to think theologically. By examining our own beliefs and their relationship to our culture and tradition of our Christian faith, we learn what it means to be effective ministers in the world. In coming to terms with the notion that everything we do has potential for manifesting the love of Christ, we discover that our ministry is at hand wherever we turn. The seminar is supported by a life of prayer and regular worship.

EFM is a seminar format of 6-12 students led by a mentor. The group meets once a week from September through May to discuss the reading materials for that week. These meetings are usually from two and a half to three hours in length. Students follow a lesson and study guide. No tests or papers to write!

Plans are to begin an EFM program in September. Meeting dates and times will be discussed among the participants. Cost of the program is $325. Persons interested should contact Barbara Van Dyke at 699-2366 or see her in church. ✠

A teacher asked her students to draw a picture of their favorite Old Testament story, and as she moved around the class, she saw there were many wonderful drawings being done. Then she came across Johnny who had drawn an old man driving what looked like a station wagon. In the back seat were two passengers, both apparently naked.

"It's a lovely picture," said the teacher, "but which story does it tell?" Johnny seemed surprised at the question. "Doesn't it say in the Bible that God drove Adam and Eve out of the Garden of Eden?"

CAC news

By Carol Abbott

The Capital Area Council of Episcopal Churches (CAC) learned in May that the Diocese of Michigan is thinking of reorganizing the council into deaneries and changing the boundaries for the deaneries. I will know more about that at the next scheduled meeting in September.

In other news, St Paul's is hiring a part-time coordinator to help with the area Sudanese. St Paul's has a number of the Lost Boys of Sudan attending and/or living with St Paul's families and St Michael's has two families from Sudan now attending. There will be more information on this when it is completed.

The Council is also exploring the idea of a youth coordinator to help all youth in the CAC and perhaps coordinate joint area activities. This is in the very early stages of exploration and will depend on what happens with the proposed reorganization.

The downtown Lansing churches are pursuing a joint venture for Habitat for Humanity. This was initiated by St. Mary's which invited participation from St Paul's and Central United Methodist. There may be a need for more churches to be involved. Let me know if this is something you think you would be interested in doing.

There was also talk of trying to do some other outreach activities together other than Habitat, which takes a substantial commitment of time and money. Perhaps we could participate in a "Christmas in July" type of activity. If you have other ideas, please let me know. ☩

Trinity Episcopal has new pastor

Trinity Episcopal Church, 201 E. Jefferson St. in Grand Ledge, announces the appointment of the Rev. Gregory Brown as its new full-time clergyman, effective July 1.

The Rev. Brown grew up in the Kalamazoo area and is a 2001 graduate of General Theological Seminary in New York City.

He will serve as Trinity's deacon for six months, at which time he is expected to be ordained as a priest. He will then become the church's full-time rector. He and his wife, Cathy, have two daughters, Taylor and Jenna.

Worship services are at 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. Sundays. For more information, call 627-6287. ☩

Building and grounds fix-up and clean-up campaign at St. David's

Now that the new facilities have been dedicated, it is time to focus on other areas of the Church building and grounds. Fr. David and the Vestry have developed a list of items in need of repair, painting, or general improvement. We are looking for members of the congregation who would be willing to serve on a fix-up committee, which would set a project agenda, organize "fix-up" groups, and arrange for supplies. From time to time, we will announce up-coming projects and dates for their completion.

Also needed are good women and men who are willing to take up paint brushes, garden tools, etc. Please indicate your willingness to participate by contacting the office (323-2272) or Scott Foster, vestry member with Building and Grounds responsibility, at 327-5523. ☩

I am thankful ...

Submitted by Fr. David

For the husband who complains when his dinner is not on time, because he is home with me, not with someone else.

For the teenager who is complaining about doing dishes, because that means she is at home and not on the streets.

For the taxes that I pay, because it means that I am employed.

For the mess to clean up after a party, because it means that I have been surrounded by friends.

For the clothes that fit a little too snug, because it means that I have enough to eat.

For the shadow that watches me work, because it means that I am out in the sunshine.

For a lawn that needs mowing, windows that need cleaning, and gutters that need fixing, because it means I have a home.

For all the complaining I hear about the government, because it means that we have freedom of speech.

For the parking spot I find at the far end of the parking lot, because it means I am capable of walking and that I have been blessed with transportation.

For my huge heating bill, because it means I am warm.

For the pile of laundry and ironing, because it means that I have clothes to wear.

For weariness and aching muscles at the end of the day, because it means I have been capable of working hard.

For the alarm that goes off in the early morning hours, because it means that I am alive.

And finally ... for too much e-mail, because it means I have friends who are thinking of me. ☺

Read the Bible in a year

Have you ever made a resolution to read the Bible all the way through, but didn't know how to do it? Start with Genesis, then straight through to Revelations? Alternate books from the old and new testaments?

Starting with this issue of the newsletter, we are going to help you read through the Bible in one year! All it takes is 20 to 30 minutes a day and a plan. We will supply the plan, you take the time. Try to read a little bit each day, and don't skip a number of days to try to finish them in one, long block of time. Chances are, that block of time will never occur.

Promise Keepers: Turn the Tide!!

Join the Promise Keepers at the Palace in Auburn Hills, Michigan for the 2001 stadium conference on Friday and Saturday, July 20th and 21st. The theme for the 2001 Promise Keepers conference is “Turn the Tide: Living Out An Extreme Faith.”

Promise Keepers founder and president Bill McCartney said the current culture is pulling men away from faith in God. Instead, McCartney said, an extreme faith is required to represent Christ to our families and communities.

The Friday night and Saturday conferences feature powerful speakers and testimonies, as well as noted Christian music artists, like the Katinas, Salvador, and the Maranatha! Promise Band.
